

session level

sessions are analogous to canonical three-tuples:
<IP source, IP dest, protocol>

number of active sessions is modulated to achieve desired volumes

connection level

connections are analogous to canonical five-tuple flows: <IP source, IP dest, protocol, source port, dest port> source and destination addresses are assigned to active sessions to obtain desired spatial distribution blocks represent individual files

inter-connection times